Requirements of the Future Education Model Graduate Program at the University of Tennessee are equivalent to the combined prerequisites for and completion of the M.S. in Nutrition with a concentration in Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics. Officially, the FEM accreditation encompasses the 4th year of undergraduate study and the M.S. Thus, students who graduate with a M.S. from the University with this concentration will receive a FEM Graduate verification statement. Eligibility is established through a published listing of students having graduated with a M.S. in nutrition and completion of prerequisites for and concentration requirements in Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics is verified. Verification statements are generated with digital signature for emailing to students through their university email address OR for mailing to an address provided by the student or permanent address if the student did not provide a mailing address or for pick up by the student. Additional copies are kept on file by the program director, as required.

16. Withdrawal and refund of tuition and fees: See <http://onestop.utk.edu/withdraw/>.

17. Scheduling and program calendar: See http://registrar.tennessee.edu/academic_calendar/ for current and future year Academic Calendars. Instructors of individual courses, including program directors, within the department comply with the University calendar in scheduling course activities. A copy of the departmental undergraduate curriculum in Nutrition-Dietetics and graduate curriculum in Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics detailing the recommended program schedule is available in the current Undergraduate Catalog or Graduate Catalog, respectively, at <http://catalog.utk.edu/>. Vacations and holidays should be planned according to the University calendar for fall and spring semesters as well as the summer of the graduate year. Accommodations for leaves of absence will be considered by the program directors on a case-by-case basis.

18. Protection of privacy information and student access to their own student files: See the University's FERPA website at <http://ferpa.utk.edu/>. Students are able to access their personal student information and academic records on MyUTK as well as academic advising information and records on Navigate (also accessed through MyUTK).

19. Access to student support services, including health services, counseling, tutoring, testing, and financial aid resources: See Hilltopics webpage at <https://hilltopics.utk.edu/>, section entitled Student Support.
